

CTRL your integrity

Doing the right thing means acting with honesty and integrity at all times, and speaking up when you think someone else is acting unethically. You can control your integrity.

If you know of, or suspect any ethical concerns or improper conduct, it's easy to report. If you have a computer and internet access, please log on to AlertLine to safely report any violations or get additional information:

www.corporation.com/helpline

Confidential, Easy-to-use and Always Available

